

Monday, 13 October – Hope Begins with God

Reading: Jeremiah 29:11 – “For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord... to give you a future and a hope.”

Reflection: God is the source of all hope. Every mission begins by trusting that God’s love leads us forward.

Prayer: Lord, help us to trust in Your loving plans. May we bring hope to others, knowing You walk with us always. Amen.

Wednesday, 15 October – A Message for Everyone

Reading: Mark 16:15 – “Go into all the world and proclaim the good news.”

Reflection: The Good News is for everyone. Sharing the Gospel means offering hope to people in every nation and situation.

Prayer: God, give us courage to share Your message. May we speak with love and live with joy, so others come to know You. Amen

Friday, 17 October – One Family in Christ

Reading: Galatians 3:28 – “You are all one in Christ Jesus.”

Reflection: In mission, we see that the Church is a global family. We are different, yet united in faith and love.

Prayer: Jesus, help us to love all people as our brothers and sisters. May we work for justice, peace, and unity in Your name. Amen.

Tuesday, 14 October – Called to Be Lights

Reading: Matthew 5:14 – “You are the light of the world.”

Reflection: As we share in the mission of Christ through our baptism, we are called to be light where there is darkness—through kindness, truth, and love. We are all called to shine.

Prayer: Jesus, help us to be a light in the world. Let our words and actions reflect Your love to all peoples. Amen.

Thursday, 16 October – Hope in Action

Reading: 1 John 3:18 – “Let us love, not in word or speech alone, but in truth and action.”

Reflection: Being a missionary of hope means doing something - feeding the hungry, comforting the lonely, and building peace.

Prayer: Lord, help us to show Your love in real ways. Use our hands and hearts to bring hope to those who need it most. Amen.

Saturday, 18 October – Hope Is Contagious

Reading: Romans 15:13 – “May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace...”

Reflection: When we live with hope, it spreads. Our peace and joy can inspire others to trust in God.

Prayer: Holy Spirit, fill us with hope that overflows. Let our lives be a blessing to those around us. Amen.

Sunday, 19 October –
World Mission
Sunday

Reading: Luke 18:1–8 – Shortened

Jesus told a story to show the need to pray always and never give up. A widow kept asking a judge for justice. At first he refused, but because she didn't give up, he finally helped her.

Jesus said, "If even an unjust judge listens, how much more will God help those who cry out to Him?"

Reflection: Today we are reminded that we all share in the Mission of Christ. Through, our prayer, our witness and our material support, we help to bring about God's Kingdom in the here and now.

Prayer: God of all nations, strengthen us as give witness to your love in the world. Help us to live with generosity and love, so that others can come to know your love. Amen.

Mission Prayer

God of all nations, You call us to be missionaries of hope among all peoples.

Fill our hearts with the joy of the Gospel, and strengthen us as we strive to share your love with all we meet.

May we listen with compassion, speak with courage, and serve with humility, bearing witness to Christ in word and deed.

Bless our efforts to bring light to places of darkness and peace where there is conflict.

Unite us in your mission, O Lord, so that all may know your mercy, and every heart may be stirred by your hope

Amen.
